The main characteristics of this condition is the ability to damage yourself in such a way that you gain maximum attention from those around you and. In extreme cases this may involve surgery and intense psycho-therapy. Does this sound familiar to Ultimate players?

An associated condition is [münchhausen] By Proxy. This condition involves adults submitting their children to potentially damaging situations and has been known to lead to life-long addictions. the ultimate newsletter

09. August 2000

Ausgabe 4

Auflage: 1.500

Dear reader,

we told you in our first newsletter that it's a risky enterprise to produce an eight-pages newsletter every day. It was a bit of an adventure, and I think we did well over the first days. Yes, there were some mistakes, but some of them not due to us (it's not, that we want to blame anyone else!).

I hope you are not too disappointed to hear that, from now on, the newsletter will only have four pages per day. There are several reasons for this: (a)

This is sport

The Sun is shining on fields 3 and 4. I stand on the grass between the fields. On field 3 Germany are striving to keep their good form and get into the semi-finals. Great Britain have pushed a number of teams with high seedings and were confident of knocking over Germany. On field 4, the Finns, who have not performed quite as well as expected are trying to get some momentum going against Australia who are yet to win in round 2 and want this game. At 14-13 on both fields, the atmosphere is electric, loud and tense. Finland's demeanor, compared to the other 3 teams who were all getting fired-up and very vocal, is like a calm sea compared to a hurricane. Great Britain score the vital 14-14, through well organised offence to a wide open receiver in the End-zone and take their game past the normal points cap. An Australian defender has a bid on the disk, but leaps early, goes under the disc and two players are their to give Finland the win 15-13. Germany are now trying to calm their offence, the call „langweilig“ (boring) coming from the sideline. A few passes of standard German offence, advance the disc a third of the way up the field before Jörg (#93) launches a huck, to Bernd (a twin #22) who has to run back and pull it down over a taller defender in an amazing catch. These guys know how to catch, but someone should them they could get hurt landing on a shoulder like that! The German pull is a brick. It looks like a handblock from Huber (#33) but he raises his hand acknowledging his foul. The GB player picks it up, winds up a Hammer and the long arm of Huber is waiting for it - A HUGE handblock. This close to the endzone doesn't always make it easy, but the German offence is steady and an across field pass is easily taken. The Germans erupt in celebration of the 16-14 win.

a severe lack of sleep, (b) a great desire to attend a party, (c) we would like to save some trees (bloody Germans with their ecological excuses!), and (d) there's so many interesting things going on, you'd better watch them then waste your time reading about them.

Hopefully there will be some positive side-effects of this decision: (a) You will find us in a better mood, and (b) we can diminish the number of errors and edit the münchhausen a bit more carefully.

Apart from that, we're still waiting for quotes, complaints, comments, personals, and other information from you. Please, contact us directly in our office, via email (worlds@gmx.de) or drop a note in our boxes in the office or in the K-Oase.

With our deepest regrets and our best wishes,

[münchhausen]

World Flying Disc Federation Congress 2000

Every year WFDF Congress is held at one of the World Championships. Last year it was in Sweden at the World Individual Championships. This year it is in Heilbronn.

The Congress is attended by the representatives of countries who are members of WFDF. Your own country will be attending and it would be a good idea to find out what is on the agenda. This year Congress will be discussing issues about the overall development of disc sports including Ultimate and Disc Golf at World Games in Japan 2001, as well as bids for future WFDF World Ultimate Championships for 2002 and 2004.

Congress provides the WFDF Board with the guidance necessary to carry out its work in the interests of the member associations throughout the year. This is mainly done by the President, Bill Wright, Secretary Dan Roddick and Treasurer Joey Gray along with Board members Charlie Mead and Fumio Mooroka. The Board are responsible for the various committees of WFDF of which the Ultimate Committee is the most active.

The WFDF Congress will take place at the ESV Clubhouse at 18:00 hrs on Thursday, Aug. 10th. Every nation is invited to send a representative to this congress. Those who have confirmed attendance as country representatives are listed below.

Bill Wright, Charlie Mead, Fumio Mooroka, Joey Gray, Rue Veitl, Thomas Griesbaum, John Harris, Jack Webb, Erik Bassie, Jeroen Pouwels, Juraj Oravsky, Juraj Turan, Fernando Najera, Erik Hammer, Shinshiro Ebashi, Mami Tezuka, Paul Eriksson, Patricia Greij-, Will Mitchell, Sami Holopainen, Gary Jarvis, Peter Sisam, Ian Stebbing, Mary Jorgenson, Jose Pires, Heather Killian, Simon Cocking, Dennis Carrizo, Inese Birgele, Aiga Grasmann, George Fedorov and Mark Kendall

Congress 2000 will be held at DJK centre on Thursday 10th August at 6pm and will be chaired by WFDF President Bill Wright.

Samba do Brasil!

Today's [münchhausen] presents one of the favourites in the Mixed-Division (Did the Brazilian dance group on Tuesday night do to you pulse what it did to ours?). The colourful Brazilian Team will not be among the top teams, but they're sure to be a strong contender for the SOTG award. Their cheerfulness, their Brazilian Samba-style playing and cheers excite opponents and spectators. According to Marco Sanches, the Brazilians are here „for learning and fun“. In Brazil, only six teams exist – all of them in the biggest city, São Paulo. Emilia Toledo tells us they have a central meeting point. Every Saturday and Sunday afternoon, the São Paulo Ultimate players meet in Ibirapuera Park for a practice session and go partying afterwards. Twice a month, the six teams play league games. After ten months, the winner of the final is crowned Brazilian National Champion.

These teams have only got about 100 players, 25 of which are women. But the Brazilian Ultimators are working hard to drag more players (especially more women) into playing. The league games are played mixed to get more girls on the field. The Brazilians teach at schools, in parks, in clubs, and offer workshops in order to get more people involved with the sport. The Brazilians have quite some ambitions about spreading the sport and organising Ultimate events. The main problem is that in Latin America, there very few teams, the closest in Venezuela. Accordingly it's always halfway across the world to go to a foreign tournament, and the same applies to inviting other teams to tournaments in Brazil. But they want to organise an international beach tournament soon, and maybe a World Championships in 4 to 6 years time. And they always welcome foreign players to come to Brazil and play with them. For contacts, visit their web site at www.frisbeebrasil.com.br or contact Milla Toledo, the president of the Brazilian association and member of the WFDF board via email: emilia\_toledo@hotmail.com.

The Brazilians sent a colourful mixed team to Heilbronn. The squad comprises 9 girls and 13 guys. The average age is about 28 years, with the youngest chick, Manuela, being 17 and a senior player (Roberto Hucke) 40. As for fun, you can tell that the Brazilians have plenty. I asked for a picture and as soon as I took my conventional team photo, they started to cheer and dance and party on the sideline. I just had to take another picture.

Caribbean Beach Party war ein voller Erfolg

Samba - Gruppe heißt kräftig ein

Seit Dienstagabend kann die WM nun auch party-technisch als eröffnet betrachtet werden. Nachdem bei der Opening-Party am Samstag noch eher zurückhaltend gefeiert wurde, scheinen die Frisbeespieler jetzt richtig warmzulaufen. Schwitzende, vom Rhythmus der Musik bebende Körper so weit das Auge reicht. Über 2000 Partylöwen hatten sich im Block E eingefunden um mal so richtig einen drauf zu machen. Die Partylocation erstrahlte komplett im südländischen Flair. Riesige Palmen, wohlschmeckende Cocktails und eine die Massen elektrisierende Samba Gruppe waren die Eckpfeiler einer Party, die Spielern und Gästen wohl noch lange in Erinnerung bleiben wird.

Nicht minder interessant war die in einer benachbarten Halle ausgerichtete Trading-Night. Hier hieß es tauschen was das Zeug hält, denn welcher Frisbeespieler will schon ohne ein selbst-ersteigertes Souvenir von der WM wieder nach Hause fahren. Nahezu alle Teilnehmerländer waren hier vertreten und so fand fast jeder sein „Objekt der Begierde“.

An das nach Hause fahren sollte daher jetzt noch gar nicht gedacht werden, denn es stehen noch einige Parties auf dem Programm. Und seit Dienstag abend kann man sicher sein, daß dies enorm viel Spaß verspricht.

Comments

„The Trading Night was very good but it should have been in a bigger area. It was crowded.“

GUTS - Japan 2 Taiwan 0

The guts tournament started on Tuesday and will run through the 17:00 finals on Friday. Games are played to 15, and matches are the best of three. We had a chance to watch a likely preview of the finals yesterday when the top Japanese and Taiwanese teams met in the Guts area - field 2A. The Japanese started the first game very strong, scoring on their first three throws and draining the first two Taiwanese attempts to take a 3-0 lead. Taiwan's #1 then threw the only ace of this game, putting his team on the board. The next Japan throw was popped up and caught by #1, who scored again. At this point, Japan's #3 began to assert himself with clean catches of two of the next four Taiwan throws. But the Taiwanese stayed in the game with great teamwork on catches after pop ups and many tips. Japan held the lead throughout with scores of 6-5, 7-6, 8-7, and 9-8. After 9-8 the Japanese took charge scoring a number of points on #5's „thumber“, a pass that sweeps from one side to the other. The game ended for Japan 15-10.

The second game was much closer. There were four aces (where the receiving team never even touches the disc) and there were four clean catches, each of which caused a roar from the sidelines of the catching team. Taiwan held leads of one or two points until late in the game when Japan tied at 11's. Both defences tightened up, and it took 11 more throws to complete the game. Japan 15-Taiwan 13. - JCH

Trading and hot Caribbean Vibes

After the rather modest Opening Party, Tuesday night saw a gem of a party night. Sweat, moving bodies, smiling faces all around. More than 2000 revellers had found their way to Block E to party all out. The venue was completely dressed in Mediterranean style. Huge palms, tasty cocktails, and an electrifying samba performance made a night to be remembered.

The Trading Night turned out to be equally interesting. Players trading and negotiating wherever you looked. Everybody wanted to find a good souvenir to take home. Nearly all the participating countries offered their equipment. Accordingly, almost everybody found something they couldn't resist.

„The Spanish team is the best and came to know to the Russians. We like the USA WOMEN team very much and the Canadian junior women are great, too. The Brazilian team had a party at our place the first night.“
